Paramahansa Hariharananda (1907-2002)

a great saint, taught the ancient science of Kriya Yoga, a non-sectarian meditative practice cultivating the body, mind, and soul. Filled with purity and love, he came from a long, unbroken line of masters, ultimately attaining the highest goal of a realized yogi, nirvikalpa samadhi, a conscious, breathless and pulseless state beyond physical limitations. A disciple of Swami Shriyuktेश्वर and Paramahansa Yogananda, Paramahansa Hariharananda spread Kriya Yoga to the East and West.

The embodiment of Divine Love Human beings pine for love in this world without which life is empty. When the love is intense, unconditional, and devoid of expectations, it transforms into divine love. True fulfillment and unbound joy can come only from divine love.

Paramahansa Prajñanananda

teaches only one lesson: the lesson of love. Through not only the study of scripture, and practice of meditation, but through every action and breath, he urges us to realize that we are all divine and to achieve that blissful state of divine love and contentment, through basic self-discipline and the practice of simple yogic principles. His loving guidance and deep compassion have won him the devotion and faith of countless disciples around the world.
